- I think he listened to too much class feedback and should have stuck with how he was originally teaching. Much more effective.
- He always had evaluations to improve the structure of the course in the students likeness.
- The class is a very difficult class but that is not the teaxher's fault. He did his best to explain it to us.
- Office hours and in-class examples were really helpful, though lecture days were always confusing.
- Professor Ferguson was FANTASTIC. Really cared about students and did his best to accommodate for student office hours
